

Contents

Preface — V

List of Abbreviations — IX

Eric Csapo, Elodie Paillard & Peter Wilson

Theatre and Autocracy: A Paradox for Theatre History — 1

Part I: Theatre and Greek Autocrats

Eric Csapo & Peter Wilson

1 Greek Theatre and Autocracy in the Fifth and Fourth Centuries — 17

Brigitte Le Guen

2 Artists of Dionysus and Ptolemaic Rulers in Egypt and Cyprus — 37

Christopher de Lisle

3 The Autocratic Theatre of Hieron II — 55

Paul Touyz

4 Autocratic Rulers and Hellenistic Satyrplay — 71

Part II: Theatre and Roman Autocrats

Elodie Paillard

5 Greek Theatre in Roman Italy: From Elite to Autocratic Performances — 87

Marie-Hélène Garelli

6 Drama and Power in Rome from Augustus to Marcus Aurelius (First-Second Centuries AD) — 105

Mali Skotheim

7 Augustan Policy Towards the Greek Dramatic Festivals — 117

J. Richard Green

8 Theatres and Autocracy in the Roman Period: An Example in Microcosm — 127

Hans Rupprecht Goette

9 The Portraits of Aeschylus, Sophocles, Euripides, and Menander in Roman Contexts: Evidence of the Reception of the Theatre Classics in Late Republican and Imperial Rome — 149

Ewen Bowie

10 Theatre and Autocracy in the Greek World of the High Roman Empire — 163

Part III: Representations of Autocrats and Oligarchs in Drama

Lucia Athanassaki

11 Charms of Autocracy, Charms of Democracy: Euripides' Athenian Leaders in the Light of Civic Iconography — 183

Simon Perris

12 Oligarchs in Greek Tragedy — 199

Robert Cowan

13 Fault on Both Sides: Constructive Destruction in Varius' Thyestes — 219

Bibliography — 229

General Index — 261

Index locorum — 269

List of Contributors — 279