

Study Day Royal Families in the New Kingdom Saturday 9 May 2015

University of Basel | Faculty of History and Philosophy | Dep. of Ancient Civilizations
Rosshofgasse | Room S01 ("Schnitz 01")

09.15 Welcome

09.30 — Hubertus Münch
10.15 The sociology of court societies:
How well do our data fit the theory?

10.15 — Ian Shaw
11.00 Living and dying at Gurob:
the palace, the New Kingdom cemeteries and the 'burnt groups'

 | Coffee break

11.30 — Marine Yoyotte 12.15 The royal 'harim' during the New Kingdom: sociological analysis of a palatial institution

12.15 — Geoffrey T. Martin 13.00 & Piers Litherland
The 18th dynasty Wadi Bariya tombs and their contents

 | Lunch

14.30 — Susanne Bickel
15.15 The entourage
of Amenhotep III.
New results from KV 40

15.15 — Aidan Dodson 16.00 The Royal Family of the later 18th dynasty: evidence, methods and problems

 | Coffee break

16.30 — Marc Gabolde
17.15 Mummies' DNA and epigraphic sources related to the Late 18th dynasty's royal family: problems of methods and results

17.15 — Beatrix Gessler-Löhr 18.00 Saqqara as the burial place of some royals in the 18th and 19th dynasties

 | Discussion and Drinks